

Giants and Superbas Get an Even Break

Slumper Crop of Hits in Double-Header at the Polo Grounds.

DONLIN ERRS IN CHOICE OF WORDS

Quick Thinking Play by "Red" Smith Saves First Battle for Brooklyn.

By HEYWOOD BROUS.

Base hit echoes which make their late in Cogan's bluff back of the Polo Grounds put in a hard afternoon yesterday. Fortunately they have had a chance to rest during the recent visit of the Yankees or they could hardly have stood up under the test of a double-header between the Giants and the Superbas.

The Superbas won the first game by a score of 8 to 7, and the second at 8 to 6.

The embattled nines made thirty hits apiece in the first game, but fell off in the second. The Yankees, who were in the second round, had only one hit in the first game and two in the second.

Everything was done on a liberal scale. Errors were plentiful and time was like water. The kicking, too, was done in large portions, but in spite of the interruptions the games were among the most exciting of the season.

Bone Wins from Ivory

Chief Meyers was saved from a stupor in the fifth inning of the first game between the Giants and the Superbas yesterday when O'Mara went a step beyond him in slow thinking.

The Brooklyn shortstop was on third base when O'Mara hit a grounder to Fletcher. The Giants had an easy chance to retire the runner for the third out, but threw a little wide to Merkle, and O'Mara was called safe, as Fred had to take his foot off the base.

O'Mara, however, thought an out had been made at first, and so did Meyers. Merkle threw the ball to the catcher, but the Indian made no attempt to get O'Mara as the Brooklyn player slowly walked to the plate. When a foot from the plate O'Mara came to a dead stop, and Meyers, aroused at length from his lethargy, reached out and touched him.

FANS IN A NEAR-RIOT AT CHICAGO

Swarm on Field When Bat Is Thrown Into Stands—Cubs Beat Reds.

Chicago, June 29.—A near-riot marked the first game of the Cincinnati-Chicago series here today, which the Cubs won by a score of 10 to 7.

In the visitors' sixth inning Moran fouled down the third base line. Hoblitzel protested to Eason, the umpire, that the hit was fair and was ordered to the clubhouse. Charley Berger ran into the argument and was ordered to join Hoblitzel.

A few moments later one of the players took Moran's bat and threw it toward the players' bench. The aim was wide and the bat landed in the field boxes. Immediately spectators swarmed out upon the field, but they were calmed by attendants and before it ceased Mullaney, Miller and Douglass had joined Herzog and Hoblitzel.

A few moments later Moran slid into second base and spiked Sweeney's thumb. Sweeney became angered at Moran and it was necessary for players and the umpire to step between the pair. Quigley escorted Sweeney to the bench, but did not order him out.

Good was sent to the clubhouse early in the game by Eason.

Each club made its runs by bunching hits with misplays.

PURELY FAMILY MATTERS

CUT PRICES FOR BROOKLYN FANS

Twenty-five Cent Baseball Now at the Home of the Tip Tops.

WARD SAYS SEATS HAVE BEEN TOO HIGH

Glad to Abolish the "Barbarous Bleachers" and Put a Roof Over Everybody.

Robert B. Ward, president of the Brooklyn Federal League Club, announced last night that beginning with the game to-morrow between the Tip Tops and Buffalo there will be a general reduction of prices at Washington Park.

The moving pictures have been done away with, and the fan who formerly patronized these seats will get a chance in a section of the grandstand for 25 cents. The remainder of the stadium, excepting the two front rows, will be 50 cents.

"Baseball prices are too high," said Mr. Ward, in commenting on the reduction. "There are many persons who would like to go to the ball park, but cannot afford to do it and therefore stay away."

"We receive daily scores of letters telling us this. There is the same complaint from the sun as there is from the rain. Especially in this true where there is a depression this year in industry and commerce. The people, however, want entertainment and are willing to pay for it if they can. The moving pictures, that there is a demand, but only at popular prices. Almost all of the big theatrical producers have seen the light and are catering to those who patronize the picture palaces. I think it is time for the baseball magnate to consider the fan's pocketbook, too, and the Brooklyn club proposes to do so."

"The Philadelphia Athletics and the Boston Red Sox play 25-cent ball, and there's no reason why the Tip Tops can't. Also, we shall abolish those barbarous bleachers. The man who can afford to spend only 25 cents for a baseball will be as comfortably shielded from the sun as his more fortunate brother in the higher priced seats."

"I do not believe in this policy of the 'public be damned.' I am determined to give the people of Brooklyn good baseball and at prices that will fit their pocketbooks."
